1. HOLIDAY EVENTS & COMMUNICATION PLANS:

The Council discussed the year end events. Halloween Event in Allenhurst will be October 30, 2021 and information will be sent via an email blast to the residents on the list.

The Veteran’s Day event is November 6, 2021, at 11 am and the annual Tree Lighting is Sunday December 5, 2021. It was decided that these events would have mailers sent to the homes as well as an email blast reminder.

The Council discussed the holiday decorations and displays.

Mayor Nohilly and Councilman Watson discussed the Interlaken Centennial Event to be held at the Deal Country Club on March 26, 2021. They discussed program and possible memorabilia to be included at the event.

Council President Butler said that Borough Historian, Bob Waitte, would be an asset for the program content.

The Council discussed sending a save the date as well as a formal invitation. The Governing Body believes that the turn out will be good for such a milestone.

The Council discussed the possibility of including a clock as something else to memorialize Centennial. Borough Administrator Reibrich said she would have pricing and design examples for the next meeting.

2. NEW BUSINESS: The next Workshop agenda will include Matt Mariano of Peter Avakian’s office who will be making a presentation of the start of the park improvement designs. Borough Engineer Avakian stated that anyone who has some ideas or feedback for the proposed design can forward it to him or BA Reibrich prior to the next meeting so that it can be included or discussed.

BA Reibrich informed the Council that Don Brockel, the Chairman of the Deal Lake Commission, requested to attend the next meeting to present what the Commission has been working on in 2021.

3. ADJOURNMENT: With no further comments, Councilman Delia made a motion to adjourn at 7:24 pm, seconded by Councilwoman Maloney and unanimously carried.
